Awesome! Would love to. First question I have: did you—I really hope you did—add the “ -- Lovin’ It!” to your signature? Or is Samsung ripping off McDonald’s now?

1) That is a good question. “Right out of school” is good on one hand because hungry, but also bad because no experience.

2) Yeah, I remember doing that on your HTC—surprised you haven’t noticed it missing yet. (Unless you’ve been focused on, gee, I don’t know...) The manual says to go to Settings > Voicemail > Activate/Deactivate, but that looks funny to me. Try & let me know?
